HOUSE CONSIDERED MANY MEASURES AT SESSION TUESDAY

Bone Drys Carry Off Honors in Wet and Dry Skirmish

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 29.—Prohibition, boxing, the Ku Klux Klan and various appropriation bills received the attention of the Illinois house today.

Efforts of modifications to change or repeal the state dry laws and follow the action of New York culminated in the first and probably the last skirmish on liquor on the house floor this session with the bone drys carrying off the honors of victory. The house voted 74 to 67 to table a motion by Representative Igoe, Democrat, Chicago, to non-concur in an unfavorable committee report on his modifying bill and then all pending measures, one favorable to prohibition were shelved for the year.

There was little debate.

There still is in the senate a bill by Senator Marks, Republican, Chicago, to repeal the state search and seizure act, but tho it came out of committee and is on the calendar, it is not expected even to come up for passage. The upper house is generally conceded to be "bone dry."

The license and miscellaney committee's bill to legalize boxing was passed by the house, 83 to 51 and it goes to the senate where many members are hostile to it.

Speaker Shanahan tonight appointed Representatives Pierce, Republican, Belvidere; Abbey, Republican Biggsville; O'Niel, Republican, Downer's Grove; McClugage, Democrat, Peoria and O'Grady, Democrat, Chicago, to investigate the staging of a Ku Klux Klan initiation at the state fair grounds last Saturday night. Representative Pierce, author of a resolution adopted today authorizing the inquiry said several state employes participated in the rites and that state property was used and consumed by the Klan members.

Omnibus Bill Passes.

After some discussion the house passed the omnibus appropriation bill totalling approximately $18,000,000 and prepared it for the senate. The vote was 100 to 33, with several members speaking against it and some declaring they would rather have an extra session of the legislature if necessary to hold the items to reasonable limits that voted for it.

House bills passed today and tonight include:

Smejkal —provides that tax shall be levied in 1923 and 1924 on assessed property of the state to provide $10,000,000 yearly and $8,000,000 for state school purposes.

Smejkal — provides that all moneys received at state teachers' colleges be paid in Normal school revolving fund not later than ten days after receipt and that appropriations to such colleges be paid from the fund.

Barber—prohibits any one not a member from wearing insignia of the veterans of foreign wars.

Dahlberg—provides an annuity and benefit fund for veteran classified civil service employes of the state.

A biennial bill to license any person repairing or installing accessories on motor vehicles received its biennial death blow tonight on motion of Representative Roe, Democrat, Vandalia to strike the enacting clause. He and others alleged an owner could not under the bill change a casing or repair his own car without penalty unless he had a license. The introducer of the bill was Representative Paul, Republican, Chicago.

Tomorrow the house will meet as usual, with a memorial service before noon. If enough members stay here over tomorrow the regular late afternoon session also will be held.

(By The Associated Press)

Springfield. ILL. May 29.—The house committe investigating the Herrin rioting was given a vivid description of the disorders tonight by Dr. O. F. Shipman, an eye witness.

Dr. Shipman said it was his opinion that troops should have been ordered to Williamson county, June 21, the day before the riots, and he blamed city officials of Herrin and county officers as responsible in part for the trouble. They favored the mob members, he said.

Hugh Willis, vice-president of the miners sub-district according to the doctor declared the night before the rioting tha he did not want Sheriff Thaxton to call for troops. He quoted Willis as saying that Thaxton, who was a candidate for county treasurer had been loyal to the miners and should receive their support.

Much of Dr. Shipman's story tonight was a repetition of that he told the juries at Marion during the murder trials that resulted from indictment of certain miners. He was questioned at length by Chairman Frank McCarthy and Representative Igoe, Rice and Curran.

Willis is evading service from the committee, the doctor said it was his opinion.

SHORTAGE OF FOOD CAUSES BARDITS TO KILL 80 CAPTIVES

Chinese Prisoners are Thrown to Death from Cliff

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI. May 29.—Shortage of food in the bandit stronghold at Paotsuku before the kidnaping of a number of foreigners from the Shanghai-Peking express May 6, caused the brigands to throw eighty Chinese prisoners to death from one of the mountain cliffs according to information received tday from Father William Lenfers, aged German priest who has made several trips to the outlaw headquarters.

The information from Father Lenfers, which came in a letter from the prelate at Lincheng, declared that the prisoner feet were bound, and each was labeled with his name and indentification before being hurled to death. One of the prisoners, a woman was thrown over her child in her arms.

Later the bandits notified the families of the massacre captives of their deaths and relatives were premitted to remove the bodies.

"One Christian Chinese, who already had paid $1,800 for the release of his son, today took delivery of the corpse," Father Lenfers wrote adding:

"Many pallbearers still are climbing the mountain. The only way to maintain peace here is to enlist the bandits and keep them in this territory for years as a police force, since they alone are familiar with the inaccessible mountain fastnesses and trails. If they are withdrawn lesser bandits will band together and cause a similar situation in the future.

Father Lenfers denies that troops were in league with the outlaws. He declares that the soldiers have been besieging the brigands for months near Paotzuku, resulting in an acute shortage of water and food at Paotzuku. The raids on the train the priest said was in the nature of a diversion to force the troops to withdraw from Poatzuku.

ACTRESS CLAIMS LIFE THREATENED

NEW YORK, May 29.—Louis B. Brodsky, counsel for Miss Stella Larrimer, today announced that the young actress, who was exonerated yesterday of charges brought against her by Geraldine Farrar in her suit for divorce from Lou Tellegen, had received four leters threatening her with death if she did not "withdraw from the case." Miss Larrimer had been waging a court fight to force a jury trial of the case at which had been heard in part by a referee, so that she might clear her name before the world.

A jury trial was denied by supreme court Justice Lehman yesterday, the court holding that a demonstration by Farrar's lawyers that she was innocent of any wrong doing, contained in a request for permission to drop the charges against her was as full vindication as she possibly could obtain.

One of the threatening letters Mr. Brodsky said told Miss Larrimer that unless she got out of the case she "would never live to see it go to trial," and that her body "would be found in the Hudson river."

The others were of similar tenor. Mr. Brodsky said he had an idea as to their author but declined to say at this time what action would be taken. Miss Larrimer has directed him to prepare a million dollar suit against Farrar and the matter of pressing criminal charges against the persons responsible for testimony against her is said also to be under consideration.

CLARA PHILLIPS COMES BACK TO PROVE INNOCENCE

Convicted Murderess Says She Has Obtained Evidence

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, La. Mty 29.—Clara Philips who escaped from jail in Los Angeles last December after her conviction of the murder of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, returned to this country today from Honduras in the custody of California officers and tonight was resting in the Orleans parish house of detention preparatory to starting tomorrow for the Pacific Coast.

The former Waco, Texas, girl who stepped from the Liner Copan, was not the Clara Philips Orleanians had expected to see. They were prepared for a woman desperate over her recapture. Instead she told newspapermen she was returning home voluntarily to establish her innocence.

Mrs. Phillips, attired in a brown crepe in the dress and becoming hat to match was on deck as the Copan drew into her pier, surrounded by her sister, Miss Etta May Jackson, under sheriff Eugene Biscaluz of Los Angeles, Mrs. Biscailus and Deputy Walter Hunter. She did not hesitate to pose for innumerable photographs. Mrs. Phillips did not make the journey from the pier to police headquarters in a police patrol. Instead superintendent Moloney placed his personal car at the disposal of the California Sheriff and his prisoner.

The prisoner talked freely with reporters but was careful not to say anything that might tend to hamper her fight for freedom. At the time of her escape she was in jail pending the outcome of an appeal after she had been sentenced to an indeterminate term of from ten years to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Meadows was beaten to death with a hammer and Mrs. Phillips was convicted largely upon the evidence of Miss Peggy Caffee.

Mrs. Phillips charged that her conviction was a "frameup" and that she had obtained sufficient new evidence to prove it. The new evidence, she said, was obtained during the five weeks she remained in and about Los Angeles after her escape from prison.

She said she went to St. Louis from Los Angeles, then came to New Orleans and remained here nine days before taking passage for Vera Cruz, Mexico. She posed as Miss Jessie Carsen, and admitted that Carsen who sawed the bars of the wondow of her prison cell was here at the same time.

She and Carsen after reaching Vera Cruz went to Mexico City, where her sister joined her. There, she said, Carsen's drinking and other actions attracted attention to them and they moved further south, finally stopping from Honduras she left Carsen in jail awaiting investigation by the Honduran authorities of a report that he had become implicated in a revolutionary plot.

A THOUGHT.

..In the day of .prosperity, .be joyful; but in the day of adversity consider; God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.—Ecci. 7:14.

The ways to enrich are many, and most of them foul. Parsimony is one of the best, and yet is not innocent; for it withholdth men from works of liberality and charity.—Bacon.

Seeing how much of a row is stirred up by printing guesses at the "greatest Americans" we wonder what would happen if the experts started making lists of the smallest.

It is said that an old Illinois statute prohibits hazing. If this be true, why not dig up the old law and see that it is rigorously enforced at the colleges and universities of the state.

All eyes turn toward New York and await the action of Governor Smith with reference to the repeal of the prohibition enforcement law. Altho the governor is avowedly wet, he has indicated that he may find it necessary to veto the bill. Whatever his action, it will have an effect on the country at large and may halp shape the issues at the next presidential campaign. Some drys believe that if the law is repealed that the reaction outside of New York this flouting of the national constitution will aid the dry cause.

SCHOOL LIGHTING

A national code of school lighting is proposed which it is hoped will make the ill-lighted school buliding a thing of the past. Engineering, lighting and school authorities will co-operate in the production of the code.

Investigation has shown that from 10 to 20 per cent of American school children suffer from defective vision. The trouble is progressive and is especially marked among the older pupils. It is believed that one of the prime underlying causes is the use of the eyes for school work in unhygienic surroundings, with bad lighting supreme among them.

As the experts point out, the remedy of these conditions is essential and also is prrfectly possible, with modern knowledge of the principles and art of lighting, natural and artificial. It would be an excellent thing if the standardized code could be worked out quickly, so that by next fall every school child would have the advantage of studying under proper lighting facilities. But pending the completion and adoption of the code, there is sufficient intelligence in the average community to install needed reforms.

THE BIGEST AIRSHIP

Germany is building the largest aircraft in history—but not for Germany. That is forbidden by the Versailles treaty. It is for the United States Navy.

There is a thrill in that fact, even though the repute of German airships is not what it used to be. The Zeppelins were at the height of their fame early in the World War, when they carried devatation to Paris and London But their glory faded as one after another of those huge, rigid, cigar-shaped dirigibles was blown up by a hostile shell, stung to death by an airplane or destroyed in some other way. The type disappeared, giving way to craft of the heavier-than-air type, fighting planes ever increasing in size, power and effectiveness. Count Zeppelin was said to have died of a broken heart over the failure of his life work.

If the Zeppelin is to come back, and prove effective after all, the great inventor's work was not in vain, even though its benefits go to other countries.

Much will be expected from this great vessel, nearly 1,000 feet long and 130 feet high—a veritable Leviathan of the air. Buopancy as a great asset. Yet is can never be forgotten that such big, light craft, with a speed of only 60 miles an hour, are always more or less at the mercy of air currents, whereas the airplane of today is virtually independent of all weather conditions except visibility, and can plunge thru almost any storm it is likely to encounter.

Plenty of Plants and Cut Flowers. Come early.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

INCURABLE

By Berton Braley

THERE'S a guy across the alley has a flute
(Toot! Toot!)
And that instrument, it seems, is never mute.
There is nothing any cuter
Than a truly clever tooter
Who's been tutored how to toot upon the flute;
But this bird is far from skillful,
And his piercing notes are shrillful,
With a maddening effect upon the ear;
And we shudder and we shiver,
And our nerves are all aquiver
At the devastating discords that we hear.

THERE'S a guy across the alley has a flute
(Toot! Toot!)
If he plays upon it longer we shall shoot!
Not a single note's a true one,
Every warble is a blue one
Like a screech-owl with a cold who tries to hoot.
Oh the sounds that he's emitting
Keep our teeth forever gritting,
He's a pestilential nuisance, that galoot;
And each day he toots it longer,
As his lungs are growing stronger
With the exercise he gives 'em on that flute.

OH the guy across the alley HAD a flute,
But we calmly went and massacred the brute;
In the grave we sought to hide him,
With his instrument beside him,
But I've heard it said by people of repute,
That a sound to chill the tissues
Nightly from the graveyard issues,
It's a ghostly shriek that makes the timid scoot;
And it's said by those who hear it
It's the young man's stubborn spirit
Which is playing ghastly discords on the flute
(Toot Toot!)
Making other corpses restless with his flute!

LIST OF OFFICIALS FOR MEET ANNOUNCED

McCord Will be Referee and Starter—Many Well Known Local Men to Assist in Running Off Events.

A partial list of officials for the Intercollegiate conference meet to be held here next Saturday afternoon was announced yesterday by Coach W. T. Harmon. The minor positions in running off the meet will be assigned to members of the Illinois college student body, as in the Interscholastic meet.

The referee and starter for the meet Saturday will be Ralph McCord of Bloomington. Other officials are as follows:

Judges of the shot, discus and javelin,—C. E. Brockman of Jerseyville, well known University of Illinois athlete, and John Larson of this city.

Judges of the pole vault, high jump and broad jump—C. J. Wright and Harry Kitner.

Judges of the finish.—T. A. Chapin, R. Y. Rowe, E. O. Mortimer and W. A. Berryman.

Timers.—F. E. Farrell, Walter DeShara, W. G. Benson and T. H. Buckthorpe.

A record of some past intercollegiate meets and their winners may be intersting. The meet was last held in this city in 1916. For the two years prececding Illinois college had won the meet but in that year it was won by Millikin and Illinois was second. In 1917 the war year, no meet was held. In 1918 and 1919 Illinois college was the victor. In the three meets of 1920 to '22 Knox college won the meet. Illinois has a good chance with the meet on her home field this year. Knox, with her preceding victories to give her courage, will run strong. Bradely is also marked as a possible contestant for first place. Prospects are for a close meet, with plenty of excitement.

INTERNAL REVENUE BULLETIN SERVICE

As a material step in promoting co-operation between the government and taxpayers, Commissioner of Internal Revenue David H. Blair has inaugurated a new program in the issuance of the Internal Revenue Bulletin, which contains decisions and rulings on various tax and prohibition questions. The Internal Revenue Bulletin now is issued weekly, presenting to taxpayers the latest rulings and opinions of the Attorney General, Solicitor of Internal Revenue, and Treasury Decisions, dealing with income, sales, capital-stock, tobacco, oleomargarine and miscellaneous taxes. In addition, the bulletin contains a great fund of information on tax and prohibition matters.

Supplementing the weekly bulletin, the Internal Revenue Bulletin Service consists of a quarterly digest, which will contain, briefed but retaining their full import, the rulings previously published in the weekly bulletins, and semi-annual cumulative bulletin in which will appear in full all new rulings, decisions, etc., published during the preceding six months. The semi-annual bulletins will be issued in July and January.

The promptness with which tax information now is made available to the public will greatly enhance the value of the bulletin service. The weekly bulletin will be issued each Monday. To assure the widest and most expeditious distribution, Commissioner Blair has ordered that subscribers on the Pacific Coast and all points west of the Mississippi be given preference in the mailing of the bulletin.

The Internal Revenue Bulletin Service now has more than 20,000 subscribers, and under the new plan of Commissioner Blair it is expected the subscription list will be doubled.

Information concerning the service, which is furnished on a subscription basis, may be obtained from the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or Superintendent of Public Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

The Value of Legume Inoculation

The value of Legume Inoculation is quite generally known. Some doubt exists, however, in the minds of many people concerning the ability of the organisms of one legume to inoculate plants in another species. Can I use soil on which cowpeas grew successfully for soybean inoculation? Will red clover bacteria be satisfactory for sweet clover and how can nodule development be secured on garden peas? These, and similar questions, are answered by the Experiment Station continuously. The following grouping indicates the way in which some of our common legumes cross-inoculate. Any member of a specific group will inoculate any other in the same group, but will not affect those in a different group.

Group 1.
Red Clover, Alsike clover, Crimson clover, White clover.

Group 2.
White sweet clover, Yellow sweet clover, Alfalfa, Bur clover.

Group 3.
Cowpea, Peanut, Japan clover, Velvet bean, Lima bean.

Group 4.
Soybean.

Group 5.
Navy bean, Garden bean.

It may be noted that no legume has yet been found which cross-inoculates with the soy bean.

More information on this phase of inoculation is available in bulletin 202 of this station, U. of I.

Ton Litter Suggestions

Careful attention and proper feeding must be given the pigs entered in the Ton Litter Club if they reach the weight of a ton at six months of age.

The young pigs should be fed in a creep before weaning. Shelled corn at all times and a slop feed two or three times daily before weaning will bring pigs to a weaning time at eight to ten weeks of age so that they will not miss their dams.

In the early part of the feeding period give the young pigs all the milk they will drink and if available it can be full fed to advantage until the pigs weigh 150 pounds when the quantity should be limited. Amounts of milk above one gallon per head daily are given at an added expense. As the pigs grow during the summer gradual increases in the ration should be made. Make the pigs clean up their feed at each feeding. Pigs that do not clean up their feed during hot weather will not make the best gains.

The ration should, in most cases, consist of corn, milk or tankage, and oats or wheat middlings. Other feeds may be used in small quantities to increase the daily food consumption. Corn is the cheapest, most palatable grain and should be full fed at most all times with the proper amounts of supplemental feeds. Milk when available on the farm is better to use than tankage because increased gains can be secured by its use.

One-third to one-half pound of tankage is enough for full feeding. Oats, ground and sifted, soaked or scalded, or flour wheat middlings (not brown shorts) when added to the extent of one to two pounds daily per pig, will increase the rate of gain but will not make the gains any cheaper. Good fresh pasture, preferably alfalfa, clover or rape, should be used in addition to the above ration. A liberal supply of fresh water at all time sand protection from the hot sun will also assist in securing the best results.

DEVOTED WOMAN MISSIONARY PASSES AWAY IN HAWAII

Honolulu.—The recent death of Sister Bonaventura reduced to one the number of survivors of the party of seven members of the Order of Franciscan Sisters who arrived here in April, 1883, as the first persons to devote their lives to alleviating the sufferings of the inmates of the Kalaupapa leper settlement on the island of Molakai.

Sister Bonaventura, whose secular name was Agnes Carrier, was a native of Syracuse, New York, the mother home of the Order of Franciscan sisters. She was 79 years old.

The only survivor of the party, Sister Crencia, is living now at the Bishop home, at Kalaupapa. The other five sisters—Marianne, Remata, Rosalia, Antonilla and Martha—have been dead for some time.

ABUSE

There is hardly a worn out Ford in this county that has received half the abuse that the average person gives his stomach.

It is not only misused by improper eating, but if something goes wrong with the heart, liver, kidneys, lungs, etc., drugs of various kinds and quantities are put into the innocent stomach, and it has to suffer. :: ::

Pennsylvania Hard Coal For 1923

The eastern states have just gone through their greatest coal shortage. There is no assurance that the spring and summer tonnage will ever get caught up with the demand in 1923.

On September 1st the Present Mine Wage Scale on Hard Coal Expires

The hard coal miners want more money. Their low day pay scale is about $5.00. The low day scale for soft coal miners is about $7.50. This is what the hard coal miners are asking for. It looks like more money and higher priced coal or a strike. Take your pick and take your chances.

Get Your Hard Coal Early and You Are Safe

Prices will not change much this year. The most important factor now in anthracite is that of getting it. It will be impossible to make up the lost tonnage and the east will be given the preference. So the wise householder will get his coal now while it can be obtained.

TOWN SUCCEEDS IN COOPERATIVE BUSINESS

Staunton Saves Residents $100,000 on Coal—Grocery Business and Movie Theater Also Pay.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., — A co-operative coal business which has saved the community $100,000 during the last nine years, a grocery store returning to its patrons $20,000 in dividends since 1919 and a moving picture house run at cost price are accomplishments of one Illinois town in the co-operative field.

This is what the co-operative societies at Staunton, Ill., claim is the result of their co-operations. This town has a population of 7,000, 100 per cent union organized. Sixteen hundred of them are members of the miner's union, which, with the other crafts, all belong to a trades council. These workers have organized the co-operative enterprises.

In 1912 the miner's union built a meeting hall for the benefit of the community. It is a two story brick building with a large auditorium seating 900 people and cost $45,000. This auditorium is equipped with moving picture machines and on six nights a week it gives shows for the miners and their families.

As a result of what they alleged was profiteering in coal prices, the workers combined to start a coal yard of their own. With a capital of only $70 to start with they succeeded through co-operation in reducting the price eighty cents a ton, according to their reports. The co-operative coal yard sells at cost plus 25 per cent to cover expenses an dto provide for increasing the business. The society conducting this coal yard reports that it has saved the community $100,000 in less than nine years.

A retail co-operative grocery store was organized in 1918 by 420 miners, each of whom bought one share at $25. In the five years of its existence $20,000, or 25 per cent more than the invested capital, has been returned to the members in dividends.

Staunton is only one example of many similar operations in Illinois and central western states. There are now approximately 125 co-operative societies in Illinois. The enterprise considered by the co-operatives as their best in this state is that at Bloomington, where there are two co-operative stores and a coal yard. The stores are now doing a yearly business of $200,000, according to John H. Walker, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor.

Other enterprises are located a Gillespie, Benld, Witt, Schram City, Taylor Springs, Kinkaid, Decatur, Rixerton, Virden, Girard Waukegan, Danville, Georgetown Mascoutah, Villa Grove, Farmington, Sparta, Pana, Matherville There also are 14 co-operative stores in Chicago. The society in Waukegan is the second largest in the state. This society also conducts a refrigerating plant and a dairy in addition to mercantile business. The Farmington society has been paying a quarterly dividend of ten per cent.

Most of these societies are organized on the Rochdale plan in which each stockholder has one vote and there are no proxies. The usual rate of interest paid on investments in these societies is from four to six per cent, and in addition to this the profits are divided among the customers on the basis of the amount of their purchases.

NEW RUSSIAN PARTY STARTED IN LONDON

The anti-religious policy of the Soviet government and the general gravity of the Russian situation, have set up a new state of ferment in Russian circles of London and the continent.

The result has been to bring into being a new Russian group, the National Progressive Party, which recently held a meeting in London. It was then declared that the aim of the party was to work for the holding eventually in Russia of a great national plebiscite which should set up a Constitutional Assembly, which in turn would decide the future of Russia. The party adopted as other planks of its platform the complete freedom of religious life; respect of persons, property and trade; open trade for all with no special privileges for Germany or any other state. The formation of this party is believed by leading Russian exiles to be the most important step yet taken to unite the Russians living outside their country.

The importance of this new organization is said to lie in the fact that it is not a party of nobles, but is open to all classes of exiled Russians. The concessions of the leaders, who are for the most part, however, noblemen, in supporting religious toleration and freedom of trade, which were never known in prewar Russia, is the real feature which makes the party a popular one among the exiles. Any mention of the restoration of the Russian royal family has been avoided.

PEASANTS MUCH DISTRUST BANKS

Belgrade, Jugoslavia — There is today in Jugoslavia a scarcity of bank notes of large denominations, and earthern jugs. The peasants are hoarding the former and hiding them away in the latter.

The peasants' bank is a jug buried in the ground. As they have become very rich in the last few years, their paper money accumulations, buried in the ground as they used to hide copper and silver coin before the war, were eaten up by mice and rats. Now the peasants have learned to put their paper money in tightly corked jugs, hence the scarcity of jugs. When possible the peasants obtain banknotes of large denominations for hoarding purposes, as the jugs are too quickly filled with small value bills.

SOVIETS AUCTION FISHING RIGHTS

Tokio.—Japanese fishing companies have agreed to pay the Soviet authorities 1,500,000 yen for the right to operate 268 fishing stations on the Russian Pacific Coast during the present season. These stations were obtained by Japanese at the auctions held at Vladivostock early in April.

A liner was recently fumigated at a cost of $5500 and seven rats were caught at a cost of $786 each.

PARK BOARD FACES DIFFICULT PROBLEM

Must Make Rules and Regulations for New Swimming Pool —Many Suggestions Offered at Meeting Last Night — Tourist Camp to Be Equipped

The park board held a session Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce to consider rules and regulations for the swimming pool and the free tourist camp. A committee from the Chamber was present, consisting of T. M. Tomlinson, chairman, W. E. Sullivan, Dr. R. V. Brokaw and H. L. Caldwell. Doctor Brokaw made many valuable suggestions as to the best sanitary regulations for the pool. The board took all suggestions made by the committee under advisement and will set about the difficult task of formulating satisfactory rules, which will not be ready for publication for several days.

It will be necessary to charge a small fee for the use of the pool, in order to defray the expense of its upkeep, as the board has not sufficient ready funds to care for this additional expense. It will be necessary to employ about four people at the pool, one life guard, a man and a woman to check up the bathers and see that they are in the proper physical condition, and one person to handle tickets and fees.

It is planned to keep a rather strict supervision over persons who wish to use the pool, to see that their physical condition would not be a menace to other bathers and to keep the water free from contamination. The board of health will exercise a close supervision and will see that all sanitary laws are enforced to the letter.

The park board realizes that the task of formulating proper rules is exceeding difficult, and the co-operation of the public in whatever arrangements are made is earnestly desired.

The tourist camp is to be provided with free wood, cooking places and water. A cordial welcome will await tourists who wish to use the camp, but it is hoped that the privileges extended will not be abused by permanent and irresponsible campers. The free camp is provided for the convenience of tourist, in order to give a pleasing impression of the city and its people. These travellers who use the camp in good faith will receive the wrong impression of Jacksonville if the place is made the stopping place of gypsies and professional movers.

Lasting Saitsfaction in the Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction — with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

HOLDUP MEN TO SERVE SENTENCE AT CHESTER

Men Who Shot Elmer Cully in Zahn Garage Holdup Sentenced to Penitentiary for Indeterminate Period

Carl Jones and Isaac Brown, who shot and seriously wounded Elmer Cully in the Zahn garage holdup several months ago, will soon be on their way to Chester penitentiary to serve an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years.

Jones, who fired the shot, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced by Judge Burton. His accomplice, Brown, stood trial He was represented by D. J. Staley and the state's case was in charge of State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson.

Brown, who was arrested a number of days after the shooting in Kansas City, Mo., was on the witness stand in his own behalf and gave a somewhat incoherent version of the shooting. He claimed that he went with Jones to the garage to get a small quantity of gasoline for a car that Jones claimed to have. He said that he had no knowledge of the intention to hold up Mr. Cully and that after the shot had been fired he was frightened and fled.

The jury evidently did not take much stock in Brown's statement, and the verdict of guilty was returned after brief deliberation. The members of the jury were Fred Crabtree, Frank Eades, Louis Leurig, George Kirby, J. S. Swain, W. H. Naylor, W. T. Mulligan, W. R. Coultas, Herbert Mawson, Harry Perry, Leonard Acree and Albert Killam.

GAVE JOINT RECITAL AT ACADEMY HALL

Miss Katherine Parker and Mr. Collins Appeared in Delightful Program

Last evening at Academy Hall a joint decital was given by Miss Katherine Parker, contralto, and Frank Collins, Jr., pianist, both students of the Conservatory. An audience of fair size gathered to hear the program, which was of pleasing variety and of such length as to leave the hearers with a desire for more.

Miss Parker opened the program with the beautiful, sustained Italian air, "Lungi dal Caro Bene" which she sang with well controlled breath and lovely mezza-voce, bringing a splendid climax toward the end. The singer's stage appearance wins her audience immediately, and her manner was calm and dignified thruout the evening.

Mr. Collins gave a group of three pieces as the second program number, and showed a gratifying improvement in technique, interpretation and repose of manner. The Nocturne of Chopin was played poetically and dramatically, and the Paderewski piece was given rhythmic verve and brilliancy.

In her group of French and German songs Miss Parker revealed a surprising variety of tone effects as well as intelligent grasp of the meaning of the poems. She phrases well and achieves dramatic climaxes without stridency of tone. Particularly charming were the Jensen and Schumann songs.

As his second offering Mr. Collins played the first movement of the Beethoven Fourth Concerto, a work which makes great demands on the pianist not only from the mechanical standpoint, but the interpretive as well. The player met these demands astonishingly well, showing that he has grown in maturity of thought and dignity of conception. He was enthusiastically received.

The final group of songs was a delightful one, presenting some of our best vocal compositions and ending with the thrilling "Pilgrim's Song" of Tschaikowski, and the singer was at her best in these four last numbers. Her many friends and admirers are pleased to note her constant growth in vocal mastery. Mr. Collins played all the accompaniments of the evening, and found in many of them real test for his musical as well as technical ability. They were done sympathetically and accurately.

BARRETT GOES TO CHESTER FOR LIFE

Entered Plea of Guilty to Charge of Murder—Crime Was Committed Last January When He Ruthlessly Shot and Killed Mrs. Margaret Pemberton.

In the course of a short time Sheriff T. O. Wright or deputies will take Herman E. Barrett to Chester penitentiary to begin the serving of a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Margaret Pemberton.

The crime was committed Jan. 9, 1923, when Barrett without provocation shot and killed Mrs. Pemberton at her home, 627 Henry street. The Pemberton home adjoins the property that Barrett owned and the shooting took place late in the evening of the day mentioned. Barrett shot Mrs. Pemberton just as she came into the yard from her own home, attracted there by a conversation in progress between her blind husband and Barrett.

Barrett appeared before Judge F. W. Burton in the circuit court Tuesday morning and there were indications that the case would go to trial. The defendant was accompanied by his attorneys, J. O. Priest and William N. Hairgrove, Jacksonville, and A. T. Lucas of Chandlerville, the defendant once having been a resident of Cass county. However, it soon became apparent that Barrett intended to enter a plea of guilty and to take his chances with the court.

Judge Burton made a brief address to the defendant in which he emphasized the heinousness of the crime and declared that the court had no conscientious scruples about inflicting the death penalty, when he thought it deserved. However, after reviewing the general facts Judge Burton gave as his judgment that Barrett should spend the rest of his life in the penitentiary.

Geoerge White, alias George Lockridge, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny. The evidence before the court showed the value of the property taken to be $15. A sentence of 30 days was given and a fine of $1 and costs assessed.

David McManus, who entered a plea of guilty on a statutory charge, and asked to be released on probation, was placed under the care of Frank Kiloran as special probation officer. The defendant gave bond in the sum of $200.

EVANS TO HAVE LOCAL CHAMPION AS PARTNER

McDonald Not to Play in Big Match Today—Leo Flood Will Play with Chick Evans Against Keywood and Knight—Association Officials to Have Chicken Dinner

F. E. Farrell, president of the local Municipal Golf association, received a telegram late yesterday afternoon announcing the fact that Bob McDonald, world's champion long distance driver in golf, will not be here today. It is impossible for Mr. McDonald to come with Chick Evans who is to play in an exhibition match on the local course this afternoon. This unfortunate circumstance made it necessary to choose another partner for Mr. Evans in the match with Jack Keywood and George Knight. The choice fell upon Leo Flood, municipal amateur champion, who will be partner of Chick Evans in the exhibition match.

Chick Evans is a resident of Chicago, where he is employed by the Hoagland-Allum Bond Co. The representative of that firm in this territory is C. P. Aspirin. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Aspirin received a telegram from his company, at the Pacific hotel, instructing him to remain in the city for today and greet Mr. Evans. Chick's employers have a high respect for his ability as a golfer and stand back of him in every match.

The local golf association officials have arranged a fried chicken dinner in honor of the noted champion at noon today at the Peacock Inn. It is hoped that the golf enthusiasts of the community will be present.

The public is cordially invited to witness the match, which will open at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Chairman Harrison King and his committee will gather at the park pavillion at 1 o'clock to be ready for the crowd.

WHITE HALL GIRL WROTE UNIQUE LETTER

Miss Lois Camm Writes Verses in Couplet Form to Parents

White Hall, May 29.—As a letter-writer of the unique and appealing sort, first honor has been accorded to Miss Lois Camm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Camm of White Hall. She is a student in chiropractic surgery at Davenport, and in connection with an announcement that she will be accompanist next Sunday night for Miss Marie Longworthy, singer, in a radio program between 7 and 8 o'clock p. m. at the Palmer school broadcasting station, she encloses some verses in couplet to carry the spirit of devotion and love for her parents in an original production as follows:

Dearest mother and dad, I feel that today
I will confess all, and to you will say
Some things that are truthful, as all things should be.
Now read this—don't laugh—have some patience with me;
For here's my confession and my resolves, too—
I mean all I say 'cause I know it's all true.

I'm bad as they make 'em, I know I'm all wrong.
I agree with my dear folks—they've stood me too long.
I say "darn," I say "gee," but then I don't cuss—
I have a bad temper; with friends I will fuss.
My mother is all that a mother should be:
If she wasn't she'd just have to get rid of me.
My dad is a game sport—endured what he got,
'Cause you can't exchange kids like things you have bought.
If you buy some butter—at home it gets bad;
You go back to the store, get the money you had.
But children are different; you sure take a chance.
If they're bad, all you can do is to spank their pants.
That last part is vulgar; I told you I'm bad,
But in writing in poetry few words can be had.

Cutting long stories short, what I'm trying to say,
Is I try to be good, but I'm not built that way.
I run with the boys, for I have no girl friend.
It's a wonder my folks don't say "this is the end!
"We've tried to make her a girl good and true,
"But she's naturally so rotten that what can we do
"But to give up the job? We've worked a decade
"To find that silk purses of sow's ears are not made."

But maybe some day I'll surprise you so much
You'll thing you've a prize daughter or something as such.
I'll buy a truck garden, give it all to my dad;
Get mother such a fine things she's never had.
We'll all be globe-trotters and go far and wide;
See places of renown where great people have died.
We'll have modern house dope that all housewives want—
Dresses will not be made, expenses nodaunt!

Oh, I'll be so darned ideal, nobody will know
That I was a bad egg back five years or so.
I'll be pointed to daughters by mothers so fine;
They'll say, "There's the kind I've wanted for mine
"To be like, but no use—mine never could be;
She's always been that way from what I can see."

This is really a fable—have you found that out?
I've talked of something, but what's it about?

I'm trying to bring out this fact to your mind
That angels, once devils, leave their pasts all behind.
They forget all the bad parts, remember the good;
If angels are blessed so, then also we could
Have the same blessing—of sins I'll repent;
Stop doing the bad things that people resent.
Instead of a letter I've taken the time
To tell this small story and make it all rhyme.
I hope you enjoy it? Remember it's true;
The first part is I know, the last part is too.
I'm going to be ideal I can feel in my bones,
As sure as cats have whiskers and ice cream has cones.
My studies are calling, books are to be read;
When lessons are over, I'll flop into bed.

So endeth this tale, a silly fool thing.
But then it's just like
Lois S.
Your offspring.

James Anderson was a business caller from Chapin yesterday.

SCHOOL FOR PRISONERS STARTED AT MAIDSTONE

Maidstone, Kent.—Education on a large scale is being organized for the prisoners in the jail here.

Classes in French, shorthand and bookkeeping have already been started by the director of education for the county at the request of the prison commissioners. There are 18 prisoners in the French class, 17 in the shorthand class and seven in the bookkeeping class.

Additional classes in engineering and Spanish are being formed, the teachers giving their services voluntarily.

TWENTY-THREE TO START IN BIG RACE

Indianapolis Race to Start at Ten O'clock—If rain Interferes The Race Will be Run Following Day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 29.—The list of certain starters in tomorrow's 500 mile automobile race here was increased to twenty-three when a French car, driven by Raoul Riganti, qualified by turning ten miles in 6:18:72, an average speed of 95.3 miles an hour. Three other machines built by a local manufacturer will take their qualifying trials at 4:30 tomorrow morning, according to official announcement. They must average 80 miles an hour or better to earn the right to start.

The general public was not admitted to the race course today. A meeting was held in the late afternoon by the drivers and officials of the A. A. A. at which various rules and technical questions were discussed.

Speculation was rife tonight as to the merits of the new machines which have a piston placement of not more than 122 cubic inches—about two-thirds the size of the smallest motors built for passenger cars in the United States. The automobiles are of the one-seater type and are much lighter than any other racing automobile ever entered in the local event. The majority of the American cars have eight cylinders. Three German cars and five French machines are also entered.

Automobiles began lining up around the speedway fence as early as noon today and before darkness parking space was at a premium. Automobiles bore license plates of states as far east as Main and as far west as California.

The race drivers will compete for prizes totalling approximately $85,000, it was said today. The speedway divides $50,000 among the first ten to finish. In addition the citizens' lap prize fund amounts to more than $10,000 and automobile and accessory firms give monetary prizes annually amounting to nearly $25,000. A portion of the lap fund is given to the driver leading each of the two hundred laps necessary to complete the race.

The race will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning as usual. Captain Eddie Rickenbacker will be the starter.

Occasional thunder showers with a temperature ranging at about 72 degrees above zero was the official forecast for Indianapolis tomorrow.

Should rain prevent the start of the race, or if the downpour should be so severe as to necessitate the flagging in of the drivers, the contest will be run on the following day. The race if stopped before 100 miles is run will begin anew on the following day. If the race should pass the 100 mile mark before the rain interferred, however, the machines will resume on the following day at the distance where they were compelled to stop.

FAVOR RUSSIAN MECHANICS

Vladivostock—The Universities of Russia, including that at Vladivostok, now have facilities for the higher education of workmen.

The idea is to make engineers and other technical professional men out of mechanics. The best teachers have been engaged and the salaires paid are higher than in any of the other faculties. The classes are held in the evening, so as to give the workers engaged in the different government factories and workshops a chance to attend.

JAPAN WARS ON RICE PESTS

Tigers Drive Shocker from Mound Before Bayne Takes Up Work—Browns Also Chase Holloway

DETROIT, Mich., May 29.—Detroit's inability to solve Bayne's pitching cost them today's game with St. Louis, 6 to 5. Shocker and Holloway who started the game were driven from the box early, Shocker remaining thru part of the second, while Holloway was withdrawn before two were out in the first. Francis, whose suspension was lifted today, pitched well until relieved by a pinch hitter in the eighth.

VICTORIOUS GOLF TEAM WELCOMED

NEW YORK, May 29.—Ten members of the victorious American Walker cup golf team, which defeated a British team at St. Andrews, Scotland, in defense of the international trophy May 18 and 19, returned today on the Majestic.

The team was welcomed by a delegation headed by Wynant D. Vanderpol, vice-president of the United States Golf association; Howard F. Whitney, former president and George H. Walker, donor of the trophy bearing his name, but due to the desire of the players to return to their homes as quickly as possible, plans for a reception here tonight were cancelled.

J. F. Byers of Pittsburgh, president of the U. S. G. A., who accompanied the invaders and Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, team captain, were enthusiastic over the American victory, which was scored by the narrow margin of six matches to five with one match tied.

Particular praise was accorded the achievements of Francis Ouimet, veteran Boston star and Dr. O. F. Willings, the Portland, Oregon, dentist, whose playing was a sensation of the invasion. Ouimet brought back a silver replica of the St. George's challenge cup, the trophy at stake in a preliminary tournament which he won by defeating Dr. Willing in a play-off.

Ouimet announced he intended to compete in both the national amateur championship at Flossmoor, Illinois and the national open title event at Inwood, Long Island, while Jess Sweetzer, national amateur king, declared that scholastic duties at Yale would keep him from defending his laurels in the Metropolitan Amateur championship at Siwanoy in June.

Other returning members of the team were Jack Neville, of San Francisco; George V. Rotan of Houston, Texas; Harrison R. Johnston of St. Paul; S. Davison Herron of Chicago; Fred Wright, Jr., of Los Angeles and Max Marston of Philadelphia. Guy M. Standifer, Washington, D. C., player also was with the party. Reginald M. Lewis, of Greenwich, Conn., who played in the British title event will return later.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN BERLIN

Estimates of the number of unemployed the end of April varied from 90,000 to 300,000. Demands are being made by labor leaders that the city restore pavements, improve public buildings and extend subways to relieve the situation.

George Waggoner of Sinclair transacted ibusiness in the city yesterday.

PRE-HOLIDAY DULLNESS IN STOCK MARKET

FINANCIAL.

Day's total sales 664,300 shares.

Twenty industrials averaged 97.66; net gain .41.

High 1923, 105.38; low 92.77

Twenty railroads averaged 83.09; net loss .07.

High, 1923, 90.63; low 80.13.

Total sales par value $10,438,000.

NEW YORK, May 29.— Preholiday dullness characterized today's stock market. Price movements were irregular in reflection of speculative indecision over the next definite market trend.

Professional interest was confined largely to about a dozen individual stocks. Reports of an early resumption of dividends on Crucible Steel brought heavy buying orders into that stock which was run up to 73 and then eased off to 72, where it was up 3 on the day. American Locomotive touched a new top at $1.43½ and then slipped back to 141 on profit taking. Baldwin touched 135¼ and then eased to 134½.

California Petroleum also showed marked activity.

Operations for the rise were continued with moderate success in the railroad shares altho there were a few heavy spot, the most conspicuous of which were Canadian Pacific and Pittsburgh and West Virginia, off 1⅜ and 1¼ respectively.

The weekly steel trade reviews emphasize that production in all districts is practically at the high rate of early May and that while new orders as distinguished from specifications on old contracts have fallen further below the shipments from mills cancellations are negligable and the tonnage on which deliveries have been held up is relatively small.

An important index to the firmness of the market was presented by the continued forward movement of active United States government bonds. All of these issues with the exception of the tax-exempt 3½s, which closed slightly lower after rising on early sales advanced from 1-32 to 10-32 off a point.

LIQUIDATING SALES HAVE BEARISH EFFECT

CHICAGO, May 29.—Persistent liquidating sales on the part of holders of the contracts which call for delivery of wheat this month had a decided bearish effect today on the wheat market as a whole. Prices closed unsettled, ¾ to 2¼ net lower with July $1.12¼ to 1.13 and Sept. $1.11⅞ to $1.12. Corn finished unchanged to ¼@⅜c up, oats a shade to ¼@⅜c down and provisions at the same as yesterday's finish to 7c higher.

Except that in the early dealings wheat responded temporarily to some pre-holiday covering by shorts, the market was without support and the course of prices was down grade. Speculative demand appeared to have been reduced nearly to the vanishing point, owing more or less to bearish sentiment, engendered by government relative measures. Under such circumstances and with Argentina and India reported as pressing to sell, the end-of-the-month sentiment here by traders unwilling to accept May delivery led soon to all-around weakness in values, May going finally to a discount under July an unusual occurrence showing notably slow demand for old wheat at the end of May. It was current gossip that to a large extent the daily deliveries during the present month had evened up the short interest here and the longs instead of the shorts would have to do the major part of the liquidating on Thursday. About the only bullish news which had any apparent effect was an unofficial estimate that the Kansas crop would fail to exceed 88,000,000 bushels, a total of 11,500,000 bushels less than was suggested by the state report handed out last week.

Removal of hedges here against shipping sales gave comparative strength to the corn market. Oats chiefly followed wheat and averaged lower. Altho at first easier in line with hog values, provisions rallied later, helped by the action of the corn market.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK REVIEW.

KANSAS CITY Stock Yards, May 28.—The opening run this week was 13,000 cattle, 3,000 calves, 15,000 hogs, and 7,000 sheep, about the same number of cattle and sheep as a week ago, but decreased receipts of hogs. In a general way, conditions in the market show no material change compared with last week. Choice to prime fed cattle seem to be getting scarcer, short fed and grass fat cattle are offered more freely. Prime cattle sold up to $11.00, the highest price of the season, and all classes that show any degree of finish are higher than a week ago. Grass grades are lower, and practically all classes of stockers and feeders are down 50 cents to $1.00 from the high level in the early May. Recent price reductions have been made in keeping with the amount of weight gain cattle have made on grass. Fleshy steers suitable for feed lot finish are selling at $8.25 to 8.75, straight feeders good to choice quality $7.75 to $8.25, fair to good $7.25 to $7.75 and plain to fair $6.50 up. Stockers are bringing $4.75 to $8.25. Those below $6.50 are common to ordinary quality, mostly from south Texas. Stock cows, stock heifers and stock calves are scarce.

Hog prices continue on the down grade and today with the market off 10 to 15 cents, a new low level for the year was recorded. The top price was $7.15, and the bulk of the offerings sold at $6.90 to $7.10. Packing sows brought $5.75 to $6.00, and pigs and stock hogs $5.75 to $6.25. It has been a good many years since stock hogs could be bought as low as the present time, and in the face of general crop prospects they look cheap. Receipts of thin hogs continue liberal.

Sheep and lambs after reaching new high levels for the year early last week have undergone a sharp decline and there is still a lower tendency in the market. Spring lambs are selling at $14.00 to $15.50; clipped lambs $12 to $13.25; clipped wethers $6.00 to $7.00; and clipped ewes $5.50 to $6.25.

Why Were You Given Two Eyes?

If you see with one eye only your judgment of position is very much impaired.

We rarely realize that almost every one is equipped with unequal eyes—that is, one of them is stronger than the other.

The reason this fact is not noticeable to you is because the stronger eye does all the work—while the weaker one scarcely ever attempts to do anything.

WHITE HALL CITIZENS ENCOURAGE BAND

Good Fellows Visit Band Rehersal and Speak Words of Appreciation—Plans for Fourth of July Celebration.

White Hall. May 29.—A group of citizens visited the band at their regular rehearsal Monday evening. The entire membership was present to the number of twenty, including some new members. The visitation was at the instance of Rev. L. E. Ellison, president of the Good Fellows, and was for the purpose of carrying to the band the gratitude of the people at large on the excellence to which the organization has attained under the leadership of F. A. Brooks. Mr. Ellison presented an outline of future operations of the Good Fellows in organizing a booster excursion and plans for the Fourth of July dedicatory exercises in memory of the Veterans of the War of the Revolution buried in Greene county. R. B. Pearce made more extended remarks in speaking of the opportunities that might have been gained in the past if a permanent, substantial and effective organization were presented, having reference to the rather accidental move of the late Mrs. Seth N. Griswold in engaging in park benefaction work at a time when she was seriously contemplating the endowment of a band organization. C. E. Pearce spoke of the wonderful philanthropic enterprize that is being carried out at Rushville, representating an outlay of perhaps $200,000.

Committeeman W. P. Lindsey, announces today that his efforts to arrive at an understanding has resulted in the heartiest cooperation by Roodhouse in plans for a countrywide Fourth of July celebration at White Hall, at which time the headstones erected by the government over nine graves of veterans of the War of the Revolution will be dedicated by Chief Justice Floyd E. Thompson of Rock Island. This happy solution is credited to Mr. Lindsey, who originated from Roodhouse on coming to White Hall to engage in the hotel business, and has become one of the very best organizers and advocates of community progress and welfare. The coming of Chief Justice Thompson had a powerful influence in bringing about this result, in that the now famous jurist, son of A. A. Thompson of White Hall, is a graduate of the Roodhouse high school.

L. R. Winn has retired from the auto truck business, having sold his outfit to Glen Vandaveer, who will engage in the express and transfer business. Mr. Winn is erecting a building on the premises of his mother on East Sherman street, and will re-engage in the watch repair business, which he was compelled to relinquish a few years ago on account of his health.

OXLEY FAMILY HELD A REUNION

Richard Oxley Given Pleasant Birthday Surprise by Gathering of Relatives—Other Durbin News Notes.

Durbin May 29.—Richard Oxley is starting to build a new house and Mrs. Oxley decided it would be a pleasant event to have the Oxley brothers and their families all come home before they began to tear down the old family residence. Since the gathering was also in honor of her husbands birthday she did not take him into her confidence concering the matter, but let him be surprised by having them for dinner Sunday. Needless to say that the day was a delightful one. Even tho there were natural regrets over the fact that it was the last gathering in the house of their parents. There were also expressions of pleasure for the knowledge that it was to be repraced by a splendid new one with modern conveniences.

Dawson Darley went to St. Louis Monday with a load of cattle.

Mrs. Lawerence Oxley entertained the Home Makers Circle on Tuesday afternoon.

Floyd Smith who has been working in Jacksonville the past winter and spring, was ill last week and has come home while he recovers strength.
